PEACEFULLY PASSES AWAY

Death Relieves Mrs. Joseph Coffey
After Long Illness—Funeral
Friday Afternoon.

On the dawn of her 33rd wedding anniversary, Wednesday, the spirit of Mrs. Margaret Ballard Coffey, wife of Joseph Coffey, one of Stanford's best known citizens, passed over into the Great Beyond, after weeks of lingering upon the very brink. Seldom is more gallant or tenacious resistance made to the encroachment of dissolution than was witnessed in the final illness of this beloved woman. Of remarkable constitution, time and again she would rally, reviving often the spark of hope in the hearts of the loved ones who watched and waited at the bedside, anxious to do everything for her in the final hours. For several years she had been an invalid, and at last tired nature was compelled to give up the unequal battle and with a sigh, her soul left its earthly tenement and was gathered unto its Maker.

Surrounding the bedside of the good wife and mother when the end came were all of her children and her husband, as well as other loved ones. All had taken pleasure in ministering to her every want, and her death, the first in the immediate family, has left them all bowed with a sorrow, which nothing can assuage. Early in life, Mrs. Coffey became a member of the Christian church, and she passes over the Dark River leaving behind the shining example of a long life, well spent, to the loved ones who now mourn. Her children are Walter W. Saunders and Miss Ella May Saunders, by her first husband, the late Walter W. Saunders, who was prominent in the history and affairs of this section of the state, shortly after the Civil War; and Robert H. Coffey and Capt. Joe L. B. Coffey, sons of her later marriage to Mr. Coffey, which took place just 33 years ago to the day of her death, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. G. Livingston, who said the last words over her remains this afternoon.

The deceased was before her first marriage, Miss Margaret Ballard, daughter of James Ballard, her parents being prominent members of the pioneer families of Madison county. In addition to her immediate family she is survived by the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. W. R. Dillon, of London, Mrs. Louis Pigg, of Kansas City, Wm. Ballard, of Kansas City and John Ballard, of Gashland, Mo.

Services at the home on Main street were conducted Friday afternoon by Revs. J. G. Livingston, Joseph Ballou and D. M. Walker, after which interment was in Buffalo Springs Cemetery. The pallbearers were:

Active—Earl W. Withers, George H. Farris, S. M. Sautley, Earl R. Coleman, Jay Howenstine, and Kendrick S. Alcorn.

Honorary—R. L. Porter, M. D. Elmore, S. T. Harris, J. E. Bruce, J. C. Hays, Jas. P. Bailey, J. G. Weatherford and M. D. Early.

WEDDING BELLS IN MAY

Marriage licenses which have been issued during the past month are: Miss Ruth Sweeney and Jamie Delaney, both of Lincoln, who were married the first day of the month. The bride was 51 and the groom 43.

Miss Mary Kidd, 24, and Farmer Hilton, 28, both of Lincoln, were also married on the first day of May.

Miss Ella May Brock, of Lincoln, age 19, and Mr. Thomas Mobley, of Rockcastle, 56, were joined in marriage the 9th.

Miss Addie Giver, of Lincoln, and James Morris, also of this county, were united in marriage on the 10th. The bride was 18, and the groom 21.

Miss Freida Iverson and Milton Oaks, both of this county, were married on the 13th. The bride was 19, and the groom 21.

GONE INTO MEXICO.

Sergt. John Hubble, of McKinney, who has seen a lot of service in Uncle Sam's regular army, wrote to his friend, Jailer George DeBorde here this week, from Columbus, New Mexico, stating that he was just leaving there to join Gen. Pershing's command to work a wireless apparatus. Mr. Hubble says that the days are hot and the nights cold in Mexico and that they are living on canned goods, and "a good feed at the St. Asaph or Veranda hotels would be a luxury."

The republican national committee sitting at Chicago threw out 16 Hughes delegates from Georgia.

Crab Orchard.

Rev. Wyatt, Mrs. Allie Pettus, Miss Myrtle Murray, Miss Jewel Goodwin and Jack Perkins attended the Sunday School Convention at Hustonville last week. They brought excellent reports and were royally entertained.

Miss Lucile Morgan graduated with honor in Millersburg Female College, and received her diploma of which she is justly proud, and we are very proud of her achievements, for she labored long and hard and is in every way competent to teach in any first class school, and we hope she will be successful in her profession.

Prof. Hatfield, Mrs. Ivan Fish, Mrs. Caltha Newland, Miss Ila Newland and Dr. Hatfield motored to Danville last Friday, and while there Dr. Hatfield did some dental work for Mrs. Fish.

Mr. Charles Buchanan went to Danville on business last Wednesday. Master Walter Hunt is visiting in Brodhead.

Mr. Cleve Brooks is home from Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Daisy Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Collier attended the High School entertainment at Lancaster.

A large crowd of sorrowing friends attended the burial of Mr. Dick Collier here last Saturday, and much sympathy was felt for his wife and family in their great loss. He had lived here most of his life and was beloved by all who knew him.

We were so proud of the way Shirley Gover acquitted himself in his school work at Stanford, for he too, was one of our pupils. He was never absent a day from school in his whole school life, and never tardy unless unavoidably. Who can beat this record? And we feel sure a bright future awaits him.

Mrs. Carrie Hays and Mrs. Robert Collier have been to Louisville on a shopping tour.

Dr. L. F. Jones took Mr. Flem Jones to Louisville this week to have a cataract removed from his eye. The operation has been successfully performed and he will soon be home.

Mr. Russell Hoglan, of Lebanon Junction, has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. James Manuel.

Miss Nadine McClure has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. King, near Gum Sulphur.

Miss Ama Boyle, of Chicago, has been visiting her grandparents, Col. and Mrs. Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Knox, who have been here for several months, left for their home in Georgia this week.

TO DEDICATE NEW CHURCH.

The dedication of the Christian church at Campbellsville will take place June 25th, the fourth Sunday in this month. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Rev. Geo. B. Snively, of Indiana. The new edifice is a very handsome one and has just been completed at a cost of about $30,000. Rev. W. G. Montgomery, formerly pastor at Moreland, this county, is pastor, at Campbellsville, and doing fine work. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. King and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilhoit, of Moreland, plan to motor over for the dedication.

TOM COLEMAN HONORED

News has been received from the University of Virginia that Tom Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Coleman, of this city, has been elected president of his class, which graduates next year. This is a high honor at that famous institution of learning. There are about 250 members of the class, and young Coleman was chosen as its head by a big majority, thus demonstrating his personal popularity with his fellow students, who may always be relied upon to know just what is in a fellow. Like his brother, Harris, Tom is just as good a student as he is a football player, which means he is as good as they get to be.

STARTING WORK IN KNOX.

Knox county's first road construction work will be started on the four-mile extension from Flat Lick to the Bell county line, this being a portion of the Dixie Highway and the contract in Knox county approved by the State engineer. Contracts awarded by the county authorities for two other extensions, one down Cumberland river, and another toward Clay county, failed to meet with State approval. Despairing of getting a cross-country route this year, Barbourville business men have raised a fund for repairing the highway between Barbourville and the Bell county line, and work is being started under the supervision of former County Judge J. T. Stamper.

ATTENTION TO SANITATION

Urged by Dr. Curry to Help Save Lives and Money in Kentucky

(Contributed)

Dr. D. P. Curry of Bowling Green, representing the Kentucky State Board of Health, came last Friday, examined the city of Stanford and found it in the same condition as many other Kentucky towns—without sewerage, and the Board of Health Sanitary Concrete Closets for the defects of the human body, and he recommended sewerage the town at once, as a health measure and prevention of disease and an economic business proposition for the taxpayers.

A four or six-inch sewer can be placed on one side of St. Asaph stream and the creek bed narrowed so as to have a continuous flushing of all sewage deposits; 5,000 or more concrete sanitary privies have been placed in the state at a small cost to each owner of the property. Dr. Curry is the Sanitary Engineer of the State Board of Health, and has to pass upon all water works plants before they are operated and to see that they give sanitary and legal results.

Dr. Curry is an orator, and specially prepared for his chosen work of a public benefactor.

The Christian church where the lecture was held was filled to about three-fourths capacity and the Presbyterians and members of the Christian church were there by a large majority. What the Methodists and Baptists lacked in numbers, they made up in quality, aggressiveness and progressiveness. All who were there had eager eyes and minds to see; itching ears to hear and increase their knowledge of sanitation and preventive medicine or the prevention and arrest of diseases. An instructive magic lantern lecture was presented, dealing with typhoid fever, germs, those of flux, cholera infantum, diphtheria, croup, tuberculosis, meningitis, the grippe, ophthalmia neonatorum, trachoma, and other contagious and infective diseases, as measles, scarlet fever, roseola, small pox, chicken pox, erysipelas, tetanus and hydrophobia and hookworm, all preventable. Dr. Curry said that in the last four years 42,383 cases of typhoid fever occurred in Kentucky, with 3,853 deaths; 41,534 cases of dysentery and diarrhoea in adults and old people with 2,454 deaths and all preventable diseases.

Eighty per cent of the diseases of childhood and corresponding deaths like typhoid fever and flux are preventable. Every time an adult dies the state has lost an earning capacity of $700 to the commonwealth. All the other infective and contagious diseases can be prevented and the death rate lowered as stated above. Infected air, soil, water, milk, and foods are the chief sources of contaminating the human body with contagious and infectious diseases. If the Kentucky sanitary privy or an adequate sewage system were in use in every home and public place in Kentucky, the diseases and death rate would be reduced nine-tenths. This saving in money to the tax-payers would amount to seven million dollars annually. Disraeli, England's prime minister in his message to his country, said: "Public health is the foundation upon which rests the happiness of the people and welfare of the state."

Let every good citizen pull and push for the good of humanity; prevent sickness and deaths, and the commonwealth or taxpayers of Kentucky save seven million dollars each year.

Dr. Curry's lecture was discussed by Revs. Bruce, Welburn, Walker, and Wm. Severance, and for the Woman's Club and Civic League by Mrs. Wm. Severance, J. S. Owsley, J. B. Paxton and other oratorical speakers, and the ministers or most of them made a prelude to their sermons by taking the State Board of Health for subjects, endorsing the good work done by them and urging every citizen to give, time, influence and money to this, the greatest work that is being done in Kentucky. Dr. Curry made forcible this fact, that all dogs on public highways or running at large are a nuisance; the law requires they be muzzled otherwise, killed by the sheriff and his deputies, the town marshal and his aids and the constable and his deputies. Officers can now get busy and save the taxpayers about $36,000 per year in taxes, due to taking care of cases of mad dog bites. Get rid of the dogs; stop hydrophobia, which latter is now and has been epidemic for many months.

RUSSELL COUNTY GETS BUSY

Contract Let This Week for 11 Miles of Pike on Dixie Highway.

Sidney Dunbar, of the Hubble section, returned the latter part of the week from Russell county, where he spent some time at his old home. Mr. Dunbar says that just before he left Russell county contracted for the building of 11 miles of pike, which will constitute a part of the Dixie Highway, running from Tennessee northward. Six miles of the road contracted for will be built southwest of Jamestown, and five miles from Jamestown to Russell Springs. The former section was contracted for at $3,900 a mile, and the upper end at $3,300 a mile. The bridge to be built over Greasy Creek will cost $3,300. A Louisville firm secured the road building contract and gave bond to have the work completed by the first of November. Russell county already has only five miles of pike from Jamestown to Greasy Creek.

FIRST REUNION IN 11 YEARS

Held By Fitzpatrick's Near Hubble—One Reads Spanish Letter

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fitzpatrick, of Hedgeville, was the scene of a happy reunion last week, when the Fitzpatrick brothers and relatives met together for the first time in eleven years. Those present were, John Fitzpatrick, of Sevilla, Spain, Walter Fitzpatrick, of Clemson College, S. C., Dr. Harry Fitzpatrick and wife, of Stearns, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moddrell, and sons of Danville, and Miss Allene Mounce of Somerset. One brother, Owen, who resides in Boise City, Idaho, was not present, but sent good wishes and a desire to be at the next reunion. To say that all enjoyed themselves would be expressing it mildly. All left for their homes and places of business on Tuesday, feeling it was good to have been together once more, and expressing the wish that the next reunion might not be so long delayed. May He, who doeth all things well, guide, guard, and prosper them in the future, and bring them safely home at last. The joy of the reunion, will not be marred by the sadness of separation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cowen, of Mansfield, Ohio, are visiting at the home of John Goggin. Mrs. Cowen is a sister of Mrs. Goggin.

Miss Doll Newell of Somerset, spent Sunday with relatives at Hubble.

While visiting his brother, John Fitzpatrick, who has resided in Spain for the past two years, translated the letter that Mr. John Owsley Reid received from a native of Cuba, and which was recently published in the I. J. The letter read as follows:

My Dear Sir:—Having read in Kentucky Farming your advertisement of the classes of fowls, and desiring to know the prices of the different kinds, I hope that you will do me the kindness to send me the catalogue which you offer gratis. Thanking you in advance for your favor, I am, dear sir, your most affectionate and obedient servant.

ILLUVINADO GONDOLEZ.

Mr. Fitzpatrick expressed the wish that he might meet some of those Kentucky fowls when he gets back to Spain, as he thinks they would have a better flavor, having been "bred in old Kentucky."

18 TRANSLATIONS RECEIVED

This translation of the Spanish letter received by Mr. Reid, makes the 18th that he has received since the letter was published in the I. J. a few weeks ago. Translations came from as far away as Florida and many other states. All of the translations made agree in substance with that furnished above by Mr. Fitzpatrick. Mr. Reid has already sent a handsome catalogue to the Cuban fancier.

NEGRO CARRIED A BIG GUN

Chief of Police Carter heard a pistol shot in Macksville late Wednesday night, and made a little trip of investigation. He found Joe Willie Rowe, colored porter at the Princess in the neighborhood, but Rowe protested he had not fired the shot. The chief was slightly curious, however, and searched Rowe, finding a big .38 pistol on him. Rowe is now boarding out a $30 and 20 days sentence with Jailer DeBorde.

JIM MITCHELL LEAVES TOWN

Neal Cook and Jim Mitchell, two well known colored men, engaged in a rough and tumble combat on Main street one night last week, in which Cook put Mitchell out in a couple of rounds. Mitchell has disappeared to avoid visiting Jailer DeBorde for a spell, it is thought.

TURLEY NEW PRESIDENT

Of Group Eight Bankers—Fine Entertainment at Barbourville.

Cashier W. M. Bright, of the Lincoln County National Bank and Cashier H. G. Skiles, of the Crab Orchard Banking Company, both report a delightful convention of the bankers of the Eighth and Eleventh Congressional districts at Barbourville last week. The people of Barbourville and Knox county gave the visiting financiers a hospitable welcome in every way. Friday morning the visitors were taken in autos to Dishman Springs, then to Wilton, where they inspected the coal mines, and lunch was afterward served at the springs. The annual banquet was given Friday evening, at which Lieut. Gov. James D. Black delivered the welcoming address, to which response was made by President Skiles of Group Eight. In the annual election of officers, the following were chosen for the ensuing year for Group Eight:

President—R. E. Turley, of Richmond.

Secretary—Claude Minor, of Perryville.

Executive Committee—E. D. Bourne, of Taylorsville, W. R. Smith, of Nicholasville and Louis Kriener, of Junction City.

F. L. Thompson, Jr., the popular young banker of Mt. Vernon, was elected Secretary of the Group 11 organization.

DECORATION DAY OBSERVED

For the first time in a number of years Decoration Day was publicly celebrated in Stanford otherwise than by the colored folks, who annually observe the day. Under the auspices of the Woman's Club and the D. A. R. beautiful exercises were conducted at Buffalo Springs cemetery at half past four o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A good sized crowd was present. Many had strewn blossoms upon the graves of their friends and loved ones. After several songs by a quartet composed of Mrs. W. A. Tribble, Miss Elizabeth Higgins, Robert Carter and Shirley Gover, Rev. P. L. Bruce acted as chairman of the ceremonies and addresses were made by Rev. M. D. Early and Rev. D. M. Walker. Judge C. A. Hardin, who had been programmed for an address, was unable to be present. Both of the speakers dwelt eloquently upon the meaning and purpose of the day and drew lessons from its observance which were appreciated and enjoyed by all. Miss Esther Burch then gave a splendid reading of that beautiful poem "The Blue and the Gray," which was followed by a song and a prayer by Rev. W. D. Welburn concluded the ceremonies.

MRS. FOSTER ENTERTAINS.

The Tuesday afternoon Club was entertained most delightfully on Tuesday afternoon last, by Mrs. John B. Foster at her attractive country home. The guests were invited at 1 p. m., and upon arriving, a beautiful and delicious luncheon was served. The twelve members were seated at a long table in the dining room, decorated with a large center basket of red roses, and the attractive place cards being red, yellow and pink roses. At the conclusion of this much enjoyed luncheon the game of nations was enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon. The following members were present: Mrs. J. S. Owsley, Mrs. S. M. Sautley, Mrs. G. G. Perry, Mrs. J. H. Woods, Mrs. R. C. Hocker, Mrs. R. T. Bruce, Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mrs. J. S. Rice, Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, Mrs. J. C. Bailey and Mrs. A. H. Severance.

SEWING CLUB ENTERTAINED

The Sewing Club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. B. D. Carter, at her home on East Main street, she taking the place of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carl Carter, who is in Greensboro, N. C. now. A delightful ice course was served as refreshments, the guests being Misses Emma Hays, Lottie Carson, Kate D. Raney, Verna Rout, Lyle Cooper, Anne D. McRoberts, Mary Early, Lizzie Davison and Mesdames J. B. Perkins, W. R. Todd, Logan McCall, Harry Carter, A. B. Florence and Will Martin.

ONE MORE VICTORY.

The Stanford boys took a patched up team to Harrodsburg Wednesday and won a hard fought victory in 10 innings by 3 to 2. Steve Dozier twirled a nice game for our boys with Perkins backstopping, which is where this lad really stars. The score:

	R	H	E
Stanford	3	8	2
Harrodsburg	2	6	2
Batteries—Dozier and Perkins; Alexander and Coleman.

Hustonville

D. W. Dunn has lots of the Pure Bred Russell county Brazilian sweet potato plants now ready—no mixed up stock of plants.

Milton McCormack arrived home last Sunday from Arizona looking fairly well, considering the long trip he had in coming home.

The lambs are now being received by the buyers and are looking well and are said to be weighing up fine.

Mrs. Walter Owsley of Louisville, is here visiting relatives.

Cherries are getting ripe and the birds are almost devouring them.

C. T. Depp, of Glasgow, is here on a visit to his son, J. D. Depp for a few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Davis of Robbins, Tenn., arrived here Thursday to visit relatives and friends. She was formerly Miss Fannie Lee Harper.

Miss Edna Camnitz of Danville, was here with friends Wednesday and Thursday.

Bryan Carpenter, wife and baby, of Dayton, O., were in town Thursday, and was accompanied by his grandfather, Capt. Turner, of near McCormack's Church.

Everybody is awful busy since the good rains, working their gardens and crops.

Carroll McCormack, of Danville, is here with his grandparents for a visit.

Rev. Brannenburgh's family has about recovered from the measles.

Col. E. C. Hopper arrived home last week after a pleasant visit in Louisville.

Misses Dell Noel and Miss Ruby Russell returned home Sunday from a ten day's visit to relative at Tallmage.

Misses Pearl and May Hutchins, of Horse Cave, are the pleasant visitors this week of Mr. and Mrs. James Depp on the Bradfordsville pike.

W. B. Noel has 15 acres of tobacco already set and the first setting has been replanted. He is cultivating the farm of Squire Fields, formerly known as the T. Carpenter farm, out on the Liberty pike.

Logan Hubble and wife were here last Sunday for a short stay.

Aunt Bet Jones, of Mt. Salem, has returned to her home after a pleasant visit here for a week.

There was a certain gentleman here from Casey county last week, who has lived all his life within 14 miles of Liberty and has never yet seen the new courthouse or jail, which was erected about 40 years ago. If all of us were like him, we would have no use for either building. When asked if he was joking, he replied that he could make affidavit that it was the truth.

A large blue colored auto passed thru here Sunday loaded down with passengers, and on the radiator sat a big bull dog who seemed to be enjoying his trip very much, although he seemed to be a little hot under the collar.

Jams Hall and Harry Stinson returned to Newcastle, Ind., last Sunday after a pleasant visit here. Lindsey Rutherford and Taylor Thomas went to Newcastle, Ind., last Sunday where they expect to remain for the season.

Dunn Sandidge was operated on at Lexington last week for appendicitis, and is reported to be getting along fine and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

T. L. Carpenter went to Newcastle last Sunday to look after some business affairs and may bring back good tidings in regard to the clock factory to be established here later on.

Miss Rosa Yowell, who was operated on last week in Danville, is reported as getting along nicely at present.

C. W. Back's team of horses became frightened last week at an auto truck out on the Danville pike, ran away, destroying a grain planter which they were hitched to. The horses were caught west of town.

Our little city was thronged last week with strangers from all parts of this district to attend the C. W. B. M.—Sunday School Convention. A sumptuous dinner was served for the occasion, on the college grounds and all who attended seemed to be glad they were here.

B. W. Leigh has been in Cincinnati all week on business.

COL. DUNN SOME ENTERTAINER

Quite a number of men from here motored over to Col. Ike Dunn's annual Fish Fry on his farm on the river in the Marcellus section of Garrard, Thursday. Senator Chas. F. Montgomery, of Casey, who is a candidate for congress, was the guest of honor. Politicians from all over this part of the state were on hand and everybody was made to have a great time for Col. Dunn is in a class to himself when it comes to spreading the real, old-fashioned Kentucky hospitality.

SUIT THROWN OUT OF COURT

Jury Exonerates Elmer Anderson of Blame for Causing Death of the Late Thomas J. Oaks.

Elmer Anderson, young son of Henry C. Anderson, of this city, was exonerated of all blame for causing the death of the late Thomas J. Oaks, by the jury which heard the big $15,000 damage suit filed against Mr. Anderson by the administrator of Mr. Oaks in the local circuit court. After a hard fought trial, in which some of the ablest legal talent in this part of the state was engaged, the jury reached a unanimous verdict in favor of Mr. Anderson. The jury was evidently quickly impressed with the justice of Mr. Anderson's defense that the accident was entirely unavoidable on the part of his son, for it was out only about five minutes, and quickly returned to court Wednesday afternoon with its verdict, read by Foreman Ras Allen, in favor of Anderson. The verdict seemed to be an entirely satisfactory one to nearly all of the spectators who heard the evidence, as well as others who were familiar with the facts in the case. Mr. Oaks was nearly deaf and blind, and had a habit of walking in the middle of the pike. Young Anderson struck him with his car near Rowland several months ago. Witnesses said that in attempting to dodge a wagon, Mr. Oaks jumped squarely into the car and that it was through no fault of young Anderson that the lamentable accident occurred.

After conclusion of the Anderson case circuit court adjourned over until Friday as Judge Hardin desired to go to Frankfort that evening and with a number of other officials attended Col. Ike Dunn's fish fry Thursday.

When court reconvened on Friday it took up trial of a right of way suit from the East End. It is expected that the case against D. S. Bromley, a former local insurance agent, will be gotten into this week. Mr. Bromley is charged with securing signatures to a paper by false pretenses. His friends say he will in all probability be cleared of the charge.

WALTON LANDS IN JESSAMINE

After considerable negotiation, E. C. Walton finally consummated the deal for the purchase on the Jessamine News at Nicholasville from Postmaster James B. Stears. Mr. Walton left Friday morning to take charge of the paper. Some interesting sidelights on the newspaper situation in Nicholasville were brought out by the negotiations for Mr. Walton's purchase. It seems that Harry McCarty, editor of the Journal there and Mr. Stears, of the News, each owned a half interest in the other's paper sub rosa, for several years and neither could sell without the consent of the other. They had the newspaper game there in a sling until Mr. Walton got into it, and he will now give the good people of Jessamine county a country paper that will make them all "go some." The negotiations also brought out the fact that Mr. McCarty has a signed contract or agreement with Mr. Stears that he, McCarty, is to name the man whom Stears shall appoint Deputy Postmaster of Nicholasville. Mr. Walton will remain here this week packing up, preparatory to leaving for their new home.

DIED OF BROKEN HEART.

On May 21, an automobile driven by Leo O. Bales ran down and killed Leonard Harold, 13, at Terre Haute. Bales died of a broken heart, alto, he was found blameless of the accident and exonerated by City Judge Newton in a letter written at the request of Bales' physician in the hope of saving the man's life. Bales was arrested at the time of the accident, but was released on bond. Sunday night, Bales' physician awoke Judge Newton and told him that his patient could not survive unless his mind was relieved of the strain. Judge Newton sent the letter exonerating Bales and the next day in court dismissed the charge against him. Bales died while the court proceedings were in progress. Witnesses to the accident said Bales was blameless.

LAST OF "THE IRON CLAW"

The final installment of The Iron Claw, the movie serial which has created so much interest and had such a large following here, is given in this issue of the I. J., and will be shown at the opera house tonight. In tonight's picture the identity of the "Laughing Mask" is revealed. Just who he is has been guessed pretty generally for some time, however.
